

Case-Barlow Farm Educational Seminar Series

July 9, 2008 1:30 p.m. “Gods and heroes from Greece and Rome”

The first in our initial 6 part program with The Cleveland Museum of Art, we will use our new distance learning technology to travel through the CMA galleries and discover the myths of Herakles, Orestes, and Perseus in sculpture, coins, vases, and a sarcophagus. During the presentation, as with all our programs, attendees will be able to hold a dialog with the presenters enhancing the learning experience.

July 30, 2008 1:30 p.m. “Medieval Masterpieces”

Investigate the relationships between art, religion, court life, and patronage by analyzing manuscript illumination, sculpture, and metalwork.

August 13, 2008 1:30 p.m. “Vik Muniz – Food for Thought”

Explore the work of this fascinating contemporary artist. Major themes in his imaginative illusions differentiate between what appears and what actually is. The Artists touch or signature marks the use of unusual materials and how artists portray themselves. Muniz work is in the collection of the CMA and other distinguished art museums.

September 10, 2008 1:30 p.m. “America Transforming 1861-1918”

Analyze paintings and architecture for clues about changes wrought by industrialization, urbanization, immigration, and social stratification following the Civil War.

October 1, 2008 1:30 p.m. “Form, Function, and Faith”

Explore the relationship between architectural form and function by focusing on three historic Cleveland houses of worship. Use geometry and mathematics to understand how these buildings compare in their design.

October 29, 2008 1:30 p.m. “Scary Art”

The Cleveland Museum of Art and Case-Barlow Farm will welcome the ghosts and goblins of Halloween. Hudson has always had many excellent artists decorating the store windows in town for Halloween. Now come and see what other artists in the CMA collection have created to be considered part of Scary Art.

Each of these seminars will last approximately 1 hour and will begin exactly as scheduled above, so plan to arrive 15 to 30 minutes prior to the start. A small fee of $5.00 will be charged per session. Seating is limited so reservations are required. Please call 330.650.0591 Case-Barlow Farm to reserve your seats today!

If you have any questions regarding these seminars, please call the Farm.
